Attendance Policy

Since this is an online course, regular log in to the website and use of the materials constitutes attendance. Students are to log in to the Blackboard course website daily, Monday through Friday, to check for new email or announcements. Online participation will be observed for timely completion of the lessons, discussions, assignments, tests, and quizzes. Please note that if you fail to sign into the course and complete assignments during the first week of the course, you will be dropped from the course. This is college policy and there will be no exceptions.

Electronic Device Policy

Since this is an online class, it is your responsibility to access course materials using the internet. Coursework should NOT be e mailed to the instructor but submitted to the designated areas within Blackboard. All communications to and from the student and professor will be completed by using your online Blackboard course mail.

Late Assignment Policy

All assignments count towards the final grade. Students should establish connections with other students to get notes and assignments from missed classes. Students must contact the instructor as soon as possible after missing an assignment to make the necessary arrangements with the instructor. Late homework assignments will be accepted up to ONE class day after it is originally due. TEN points will be deducted from the final score of late work. Late work will be accepted only two times per student per semester.
Make-up Exam Policy
Students must contact the instructor as soon as possible after missing a quiz, test, or exam (all of which count toward the final grade) to make arrangements with the instructor. The instructor may provide makeup quizzes, tests, or exams at her own discretion, may provide a different version of the test, and may require its completion outside of class.

Academic Dishonesty Policy
Academic dishonesty includes the following actions, as well as other similar conduct aimed at making false representation with respect to the student’s academic performance: (1) Cheating on an exam, (2) Collaborating with others on work to be presented, if contrary to the stated rules of the course, (3) Submitting, if contrary to the rules of the course, work previously submitted in another course, (4) Knowingly and intentionally assisting another student in any of the above actions, including assistance in an arrangement whereby work, classroom performance, examination, or other activity is submitted or performed by a person other that the student under whose name the work is submitted or performed, (5) Plagiarism.

Academic Dishonesty Penalty for Violation
Academic dishonesty will result in a failing grade for this class.

Withdrawal Policy
A student will be withdrawn by the professor for excessive absences after missing four consecutive classes.

Student Code of Conduct

Unauthorized Use of Voice and Video Recording
Using any device to make an audio or video recording of any person without their prior knowledge or express consent.

College Policies

Academic Dishonesty/Integrity
Academic misconduct including, but not limited to, unauthorized use of aids, cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, or facilitating academic dishonesty in the classroom or other college environments, as defined below:

Plagiarism

• Taking the words or specific substance of another and either copying or paraphrasing the work without giving credit to the source.
• Submitting a term paper, examination or other work written by someone else.
• Failure to give credit in a footnote for ideas, statements of facts or conclusions derived by another.
• Failure to use quotation marks when quoting directly from another person, whether it is a paragraph, a sentence or even a part thereof.

Cheating
Using unauthorized notes, study aids, or information from another student or student’s paper on an in-class examination; altering a graded work after it has been returned, then submitting the work for regrading; and allowing another person to do one’s work and to submit the work under one’s own name or otherwise not following the rules or instruction to gain an advantage.

Fabrication
Presenting data in a piece of work that were not gathered in accordance with guidelines defining the appropriate methods for collecting or generating data and failing to include a substantially accurate account of the method by which the data were generated or collected.

Aiding and Abetting Dishonesty
Providing material or information to another person with knowledge that these materials or information will be used improperly pursuant to Florida Statutes 877.17 (1).

Forgery
Altering documents affecting academic records; forging a signature of authorization or falsifying information on an official academic document, election form, grade report, letter of permission, petition, or any document designed to meet or exempt a student from an established College academic regulation.
Warning: Students may not withdraw from a class to avoid a failing grade as a result of such a violation.

Please refer to the Palm Beach State College Student Handbook (www.palmbeachstate.edu/current for link to the student handbook).

Classroom Etiquette and Student Behavior Guidelines
Students will demonstrate respect for professors and fellow students. Behavior that is deemed disruptive to a positive learning environment will be addressed by the professor and may result in a warning. If the student's behavior is deemed extreme in nature, the student will be referred to the dean of students for disciplinary action in accordance with the Student Handbook. Consequences for such behavior may result in formal conduct charges and sanctions.

Computer Competency Component
Each student will, to the satisfaction of the professor, demonstrate a fundamental understanding of basic computer operations through various professor-determined exercises and/or assignments.

Disability Support Services
Students with disabilities are advised, in compliance with federal and state laws, that accommodations and services are available through the office of Disability Support Services (DSS). It is the student's responsibility to contact the Disability Support Services office and to submit appropriate documentation prior to receiving accommodations and/or services. Please see the website at www.palmbeachstate.edu/disability for additional information.

Eating, Drinking and Smoking
Eating and drinking are confined to areas designated on the campus. Smoking, including electronic cigarettes (also known as e-cigarettes, vapors, vaporizers, or nicotine vaporizers), is not permitted in any College building and only in areas designated at each campus.

Final Course Grade Appeal
The evaluation of academic work is the responsibility of the faculty member/instructor. The method for assigning the final course grade is established by the faculty member/instructor. Per Board Rule 6Hx-18-3.191, faculty/instructors shall communicate the grading policy of the course to their students in writing. If this policy changes during the term, students should be notified of any changes in writing. The method to determine final course grades must be communicated to students in a course syllabus prior to the beginning of the course. Should a student have a question about a final course grade, please follow the procedures as outlined in the student handbook: www.palmbeachstate.edu/current.

Mid-Term Grade Reporting
Within one week after the close of the mid-term grading period, mid-term grades will be made available to all students for each class by either written notification or individual conference.

Student Responsibility Policy
When a student attends the College, s/he becomes subject to its jurisdiction. Students are expected to conduct themselves in a responsible manner, in all areas of campus life. By enrolling, they pledge to obey the rules and regulations of the College and are responsible for observing all College policies and procedures as published in the student handbook, the College catalog, and other College publications which may be related to specific program of study. The student will be responsible for preparing for class, participating in class, and completing assignments on time.

Palm Beach State Websites of Interest
Please see this web page (www.palmbeachstate.edu/current) for a list of web addresses for students.

Withdrawal Policy for Individual Courses
The last day to withdraw from a College course with a "W" grade in this course is 2020-03-30. It is the responsibility of the student to use the PantherWeb system or visit a campus Registrar’s office to withdraw. An official withdrawal entitles the student to a grade of "W" in the class. Students may not withdraw from a class to avoid a failing grade as a result of a violation of the Academic Dishonesty/Integrity Policy.
